

How to find On Site Bristol – new location from 8th May 2007

Avonquay, Cumberland Basin, Bristol BS1 6XL 0117-353-3480

Avonquay is just off Merchants Road, Hotwells, between two pubs – The Pumphouse (on the Hotwells side) and Nova Scotia (on the Bedminster side). Coming over the Merchants Road swing bridge from north to south there is a sharp left hand turn into a single track lane, signposted for Bristol Yacht Brokerage.

There is no visitor parking at Avonquay itself. There are car parks in Brunel Lock Rd and next to the Create Centre (Smeeton Rd.). Park & Ride buses from Long Ashton and Avonmouth stop in Merchants Rd.

From the City Centre, travel along Hotwell Road (A4) heading for the M5 and Avonmouth. Turn left onto Merchants Road, signposted for the SS Great Britain, follow road round to the right into Brunel Lock Road. From South Bristol, from Bedminster Bridge, take Cumberland Road, following signs for SS Great Britain and then Create Centre, joining Smeeton Road which curves right into Brunel Lock Road.

By bus, Cumberland Basin is served by many busses from the Centre. The 500 service (Baltic Wharf Loop) runs from The Centre, Temple Meads and Broadmead to Merchants Road every 20 minutes. Other services stopping on Merchants Road include X1, X7, 350, 354 and 364. The 586 and 587 services stop in nearby Dowry Square.
