

Framework & Qualifications – Bench Joinery

Apprentices work towards a number of qualifications, called a “Framework”, usually including an NVQ Level 2, a Technical Certificate, at least two Key Skills and Employment Rights & Responsibilities. Some frameworks also have additional skills tests.

The Advanced Apprenticeship Framework for Bench Joinery has the following qualifications

- NVQ Wood Occupations – Bench Joinery – Level 2
 - Unit VR01 Conform to general workplace safety
 - Unit VR02 Conform to efficient work practices
 - Unit VR03 Move and handle resources
 - Unit VR13 Set up and use circular saws
 - Unit VR14B Produce setting out details for routine products
 - Unit VR15B Mark out from setting out details for routine products
 - Unit VR16B Manufacture routine products

- Intermediate Construction Award – Wood Occupations – Bench Joinery Route
 - Unit ICA 100 Store Materials and Equipment
 - Unit ICA 101 Erect and Dismantle Basic Working Platforms
 - Unit ICA 102 Work Efficiently
 - Unit ICA 110 Use Portable Power Tools
 - Unit ICA 136 Produce Setting Out Details
 - Unit ICA 137 Mark Out Joinery
 - Unit ICA 138 Produce Joinery Products

- CITB ConstructionSkills Health & Safety Test

- Key Skills
 - Application of Number Level 1
 - Communication Level 1

- Employment Responsibilities and Rights Supporting Craft Occupations

The Advanced Apprenticeship Framework for Bench Joinery has the following qualifications –

- NVQ Wood Occupations – Carpentry and Joinery Site Work – Level 3
 - Unit VR01 Conform to general workplace safety
 - Unit VR209 Confirm work activities and resources for the work
 - Unit VR210 Develop and maintain good working relationships
 - Unit VR211 Confirm the occupational method of work
 - Unit VR14B Produce setting out details for routine products
 - Unit VR15B Mark out from setting out details for routine products
 - Unit VR16B Manufacture routine products

 - Unit VR26 Set up and use fixed or transportable machinery
 - Unit VR27B Produce complex shaped product details
 - Unit VR28 Produce CAD setting out details

- Advanced Construction Award – Wood Occupations – Bench Joinery Route
 - Unit ACA 173 Assist in Establishing the Operational Area
 - Unit ACA 174 Assist with Progressing Operations
 - Unit ACA 175 Assist with Organising Resources
 - Unit ACA 181 Produce Timber Products (Circular Saw)
 - Unit ACA 261 Co-ordinate and Produce Details for the Production of Joinery Units
 - Unit ACA 262 Co-ordinate and Manufacture Joinery Units

- Key Skills
 - Application of Number Level 2
 - Communication Level 2

- Employment Responsibilities and Rights Supporting Craft Occupations